Desert Turf Club's Appeal Set for Dec. 4

Fourth District Court of Appeals has set Tuesday, Dec. 4, at 10 a.m., as the date for a hearing on a petition of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors for relief from a Superior Court order to issue a M-3 zoning permit to the Desert Turf Club so it can establish a quarterhorse race track in the Rancho Mirage area.

This will be a special court session, held in San Bernardino.

This is the second time that the fight between the Turf Club and supervisors has reached the Appellate Court. The first time, it was taken there by the applicant for the zoning change, and they were successful, in fact so successful that it resulted in the Superior Court ordering the granting of the permit—the decision which now is being contested.

If the supervisors win at the hearing, it will relieve them from obeying the Superior Court order to issue the permit. If they lose, they will have to issue the zoning variance which would permit the race track, unless they resort to other undetermined legal maneuvering.

Dr. Goldberg in Berkeley on Plans For New Hospital

Dr. Benjamin Goldberg of Palm Springs, special consultant to the Riverside County Board of Supervisors in the construction of the addition to the county hospital at Arlington left today for Berkeley to have the working drawings of the first unit of construction checked by state and federal architects.

The first unit comprises 120 beds, 80 for chronic diseases and rehabilitation, and 40 for convalescent nursing.

If the drawings are approved, bids are expected to be asked within a month, and construction should start by January.

Dr. Goldberg was accompanied by Herman Ruhnau, architect.

The addition cost was approved by voters in a bond issue at the Primary election in June, and state and federal funds were added on a matching basis.

Attempt to Hang Presley in Effigy Fatal to Youth, 14

CHICAGO (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Martin Ritchie joined five other teenagers Monday night in a joking attempt to hang Elvis Presley in effigy. The prank cost Martin his life.

Police learned the story from Edward Grant, 14, and his companions.

"We had nothing to do so we decided to make a dummy and hang it from a light post," Edward told them. "We got some old rags and newspaper and things we found around. Then we got a five-gallon can for the head and somebody

RIGHT-TO-WORK HEADS WEEK'S COUNCIL SLATE

A full agenda faces the city council tomorrow night, with one of the highpoints of the evening scheduled to be when the much discussed and controversial Right-to-Work ordinance is automatically brought in for decision.

Tabling action by the council at its last meeting reverberated in loud protests from both local businessmen and officials of the unions, as the motion stopped any discussion on the controversial subject.

SINCE THE LAST meeting, the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce passed a resolution asking the city council to adopt the new ordinance, but, as this action was taken the Palm Springs Restaurant Association signed a contract with the Culinary Workers and Bartenders Union Local 535.

Just what these two actions will mean tomorrow night, when the matter again comes before the council, would be pure supposition and guessing on the part of anybody.

UNION OFFICIALS have said that they would attack the Right-to-Work ordinance legally, if it is passed, and with Palm Springs being the first city in the United States to attempt passage of such a law, unions and cities of states without the law, are watching carefully the action of this community. The law has been adopted by 17 states, with one state later repealing it.

Union officials have been adamant in their stand that the law is bad, and are expected to attend tomorrow night's meeting en masse to present their side of the story to the city's governing body.

THE LOCAL Right-to-Work ordinance was proposed to the council by the Palm Springs Employers Association, and passed its first reading on the night of Oct. 10, by a vote of 6-1. Councilman Leonard Wolf cast the dissenting vote.

Then, with a full chamber of on-lookers, the council on Oct. 24, received a motion from Councilman Jerry Sanborn asking the ordinance be tabled, and the motion was passed by a 5-2 vote.

Increase Reported in Number of U.S. Aged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation now has about 14,426,000 persons 65 years and older, more than twice as many as in 1930, the Census Bureau said Monday.

This represents about 8.6 percent of the total population—the highest percentage of oldsters on record.

"Somebody said, 'Let's make it Elvis.' So we got a cardboard and wrote 'Elvis' on it. The kids got a rope and strung it around the dummy's head. Marty climbed the pole with the rope in his hands."

When young Ritchie touched the lightshade, police were told, he stiffened, slid halfway down the pole and fell to the ground.

A bureau of electricity official said 5,000 volts of current passed through the boy's body. He died soon afterward at Holy Cross Hospital.

No Plans for Big 3 Parley Made as Yet

Gov't Officials Say, However, That Such A Meeting Is Sure

By WILLIAM GALBRAITH
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, AP—The United States is almost certain to agree to a Big Three meeting with Britain and France on critical world problems, but not in the immediate future, informed sources said today.

They declined to predict when a conference of President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Anthony Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet might be scheduled. Consideration of a parley has been under way for some days.

Reports from Paris said Mr. Eisenhower has agreed in principle to another Big Three meeting, probably in Washington.

BUT WHITE HOUSE spokesman Murray Snyder said Monday that there are no plans for such a meeting "at this moment." His statement did not rule out a conference in the coming months.

Officials said a Big Three session is certain to be held if the British and French want it strongly.

There are two chief reasons the United States is not rushing into the proposed top-level round of discussions on world problems:

It wants to concentrate its main efforts for achieving peace in the Critical Middle East in the United Nations.

ALSO, THE United States, as the only Big Three power which did not get involved in the Middle East fighting, is reluctant to sit down quickly with two of the belligerents. If it did, some other nations might suspect that the United States really had supported the British and French in their military stab into the Suez Canal Zone.

Despite these factors against an early meeting with Britain and France, there is one important factor weighing in favor of the conference. That is the need for repairing the damaged U.S.-British-French alliance.

Turnout at the monthly visit of the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank at Desert Hospital Monday was very disappointing. Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood reported.

Fifteen persons volunteered to donate blood, and 11 were accepted. Quota is 25 points of blood.

The turnout was considerably below the number which reported at the October session, 41.

Henwood urged Villagers to watch for the announcement of the December visit at Desert Hospital, and to plan now to donate blood and establish their own private blood banks which could be used by their family or friends.

ENVIRONMENT, NOT CIGARETS, GET GREATEST BLAME FOR LUNG CANCER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A leading authority on cancer reported today that a great majority of lung cancers, particularly in men, are traceable to environmental factors rather than excessive cigarette smoking.

Dr. W. C. Hueper, head of the environmental cancer section of the National Cancer Institute, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Md., issued the report in a paper written for the American Public Health Association's 84th annual meeting.

Hueper listed factors in support of his views as the irregular epidemiologic pattern presented by the regional distribution and rise in the frequency of lung cancers

Sneak Attack From Syria is Said Possible

British on Cyprus Alerted to Prevent Any Surprise Move

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, AP—British military leaders on Cyprus warned today of the possibility of a "sneak" air attack from Syria during the period a United Nations police force is taking over the duties of preserving peace in the Middle East.

The semi-official Mideast News Agency in Cairo announced the first detachment of a U.N. force of 45 men arrived today at Abusweir Airfield, south of Ismailia. But in Naples a U.N. spokesman said no U.N. troops had yet left the staging area.

THERE WAS NO explanation of the Middle East report. The semi-official agency is owned by the Egyptian government. It said the United Nations troops set down at midnight EST and that others were expected during the next seven hours.

Virgil de Angelis, head of the U.N. staff at Capodichino Airfield, said no U.N. troops had yet left. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was leaving New York tonight for the Naples, Italy, staging area where the first troops from Colombia, Denmark and Norway arrived earlier this week. He was flying on to Cairo later to see there was no slip up.

British military leaders on Cyprus were taking no chances during the crucial takeover period. They ordered highest security precautions against possibility of an attack from Syria where scores of Soviet-built MIG jet fighters have been reported massed on Syrian airfields.

The British discounted the possibility of an attack from Egypt because of the Egyptian air force in bombing attacks that began a week ago and because of the radar screen between Cyprus and Egypt. But they noted Syria is only 80 minutes flying time from Cyprus.

There have been reports that up to 1,000 Soviet technicians already were in Egypt and Syria, but an RAF source said there was no evidence any of the planes based in Syria would be flown by Russians in combat.

30,000 RUSS AIRMEN, EXPERTS IN MIDEAST

NEW YORK (UP)—The Daily News said today some 30,000 Russian "volunteer" airmen and ordnance experts have flocked to the Middle East in the last 10 days, according to "a highly reliable source."

In a copyrighted dispatch from its Washington bureau, the News said it was told the Russians had been flown to Egypt and other Arab states by way of China and across India.

The "volunteers" being sent by Russia as result of the attacks on Egypt by Israel, Britain and France include pilots, mechanics, engineers, and ordnance technicians, the News said.

Women's College President, Nehru Dormitory Razed In Morning Fire

FULTON, Mo. (AP)—A raging fire early today left the central group of freshmen dormitory buildings on the campus of William Woods College for Women "a total loss."

Officials said the fire was brought under control at about 1:30 a.m. PST.

They said the main freshmen dormitory, Jones Hall, and North Jones Hall burned to the ground, as well as the adjacent campus dining room and kitchen.

Another dormitory, Edwards Hall, just south of the other buildings, was also damaged but was still standing.

Six roll calls were taken of women students housed in the buildings destroyed. They were all reported safe and accounted for.

Damage was unofficially estimated to be at least $1 million to the buildings. No estimate was made on the personal belongings of the students and school personnel, but it was reported that "nothing of any value was saved."

Historical Society Maps Plans for Founders' Day

Final plans for Founders Day will be completed at a meeting of officials of the Palm Springs Historical Society at Tamarisk Park this afternoon.

Along with completion of the program will be selection of the Palm Springs Debs of years ago, who will appear at the celebration next Sunday in costumes similar to those worn by the beautiful Debs of today.

All residents are asked to attend the program honoring the Founders of Palm Springs, which will start with a picnic lunch. Theme will be "Children's Day" and dress is to be appropriate to this idea.

The event has been set for the Sunday before Thanksgiving, as an annual date.

Eden Regains Full Control In Parliament

LONDON, AP—Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden appeared today to have regained complete control of the Conservative party which split three weeks ago over his policy in the Middle East.

Formal debate on the Queen's speech announcing new government policy winds up today. Eden, bolstered by his third confidence vote in three weeks, had been expected to make a major policy speech. But later it was announced that Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox Boyd would speak in his stead. Political observers said Eden apparently had decided there was nothing he could add to what he already has said on the Suez situation.

Small Bands Of Diehards Still Hold Out

Flood of Refugees Continues, 2,300 Escape in 2 Days

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
VIENNA, P—New fighting erupted today in Budapest where Soviet leaders were reported trying to quell the Hungarian rebellion.

Reports from an unimpeachable source in Budapest said it was impossible to pin down definitely where the battle was raging, since it was some distance from the center of the city.

It was evident, however, that diehard bands of freedom fighters were still battling Soviet tanks and troops on the outskirts of the shattered capital, the source said. He added there was no fighting in the inner city.

A delegation of top Soviet leaders flew into Budapest in a desperate attempt to find ways of ending continued resistance to the Communist regime.

Austrian authorities reported the flood of refugees from Hungary continued with more than 2,300 men, women and children crossing the frontier into Austria since noon Monday.

The Austrian Radio said Hungarian Communist border guards opened fire on a group of refugees trying to cross near Rechnitz. The radio said two of the refugees were wounded and the others beaten and dragged back bodily.

Trains Run Again

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Freight trains were moving across the border into Hungary today for the first time since Nov. 4.

Passenger traffic has not been resumed. Airline flights connecting Belgrade with Moscow and the satellite capitals still bypass Budapest. River traffic also remained at a standstill.

Phones Operating

VIENNA (AP)—Telephone communications with Hungary were restored today for the first time since the Soviet Army moved in to crush the Hungarian revolt Nov. 4.

Borchers Linked With Dancer in New Romance

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Meek, balding Walter G. Borchers, 45-year-old Pasadena insurance broker accused of murdering his pretty red-haired secretary, has been linked to a new romance.

The district attorney's office revealed Monday that the former minister, facing arraignment Wednesday on charges of slaying Mrs. Mary Dorothy McCully on Oct. 9, was involved romantically with Mrs. Evelyn Ackerman, 23-year-old taxi dancer at the Roseland Roof Ballroom.

MRS. ACKERMAN told investigators Borchers came to the ballroom every night for a month in January to dance with her. She said he insisted on dancing only with her and would buy all tickets for four to six hours a night.

She said Borchers gave her clothing, an automobile, a white fur stole, a diamond ring and household goods.

He insisted on dinner dates, even though she told him she was married. Borchers dined with the dancer and her husband, Ray.

SHE SAID her husband told her not to see Borchers any more after the insurance man proposed marriage several times and said he was getting a divorce from his wife, Marion, 33.

The young woman told investigators she returned the ring and automobile to Borchers, who had kept the vehicle in his own name. "I never saw or heard from him again," she said.

Borchers told officers Mrs. McCully was shot accidentally in a struggle for a gun after she had threatened to commit suicide in his car parked near the Rose Bowl.

Cold Wave Hits Northeast, Rest Of U.S. Warmer

By UNITED PRESS
Colder weather hit New England today, but a general warming followed the eastward movement of chilly air out of the Midwest. The cold air mass covered the eastern half of the country from the Atlantic Coast westward to a line from Wisconsin southwestward through Central Mexico.

Nighttime temperatures ranged from around 30 degrees in the North to near 50 in Southwestern Texas.

Warmer air, however, was replacing the cold air from the West and raised temperatures noticeably from Eastern Montana through Northwestern Kansas. The general warming was to continue its eastward movement today, covering the area from the Eastern Dakotas to the Ohio Valley and southward through Texas and the Gulf Coast states.

Light precipitation accompanied the cold air around the northern portion of the Great Lakes and into the New England states. The precipitation was light, occurring mostly as snow flurries except to the Atlantic Coast where showers fell.

Snow flurries were expected throughout the day in the New England area, near Lake Superior and in the mountain regions of the Pacific Northwest.

VISA Students to Address Rotary At Tennis Club

Elias Tuma and Alexander Ebeid, VISA students at the University of Redlands, will be the featured speakers at the Wednesday luncheon meeting of the Palm Springs Rotary Club at the Tennis Club.

Tuma, who is an Arabian reared in Palestine, and Alexander, who is an Egyptian, will speak on "The Position of Middle Eastern Countries in International Affairs."

The speakers will be introduced by Glenn Snyder, a Rotarian, who is an assistant to the president of Redlands University.

President James Cavett will preside at the meeting.

Mexicans Fire At U.S. Vessel, Injuring Captain

TAMPICO, Mexico, Nov. 13.—Mexican fishermen who accused Americans of "piracy" in the Gulf of Mexico fired on a U.S. shrimp boat Monday night, seriously wounding the captain, it was reported today.

U.S. and Mexican authorities studied conflicting reports of the incident here today. Some fishermen said the shots were fired from a Mexican shrimp vessel, while others said they were fired by a Mexican coast guard cutter.

The Mexican coast guard cutter G28 was reported to have sped toward the Pescador, a shrimp boat from Brownsville, Tex., after armed crews of several Mexican fishing boats put out from Tampico in search of what they called "American pirates."

Radio reports said Tom Wilson of Brownsville, captain of the Pescador, was shot twice in the back. It was believed one bullet struck him in the kidney.

The U.S. Coast Guard station in New Orleans said the cutter Triton, stationed at Corpus Christi, Tex., was en route to the trouble spot and expected to arrive there this afternoon.

Summerfield Gaining After Throat Surgery

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 13.—Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield was reported in "good condition and resting comfortably" today after undergoing a successful throat operation.

Officials at the University of Michigan Hospital said they expected Summerfield to be out of the hospital "in a week or 10 days." They said he would have to convalesce at his Flint, Mich., home for several weeks.

Fear Girl, 18, and Ex-Con Eloping

SPRINGFIELD, Vt., Nov. 13.—The U.S. attorney for Vermont asked police throughout the nation today to search for his 18-year-old daughter and an ex-convict whom he fears she is eloping.

Warrants charging the ex-convict, Richard S. Thatcher of Evanston, Ill., with obtaining a rented car by fraudulent means, transporting a stolen car across state lines, and parole violations were issued.

Thatcher, thought to be armed with a hunting rifle, is believed to have eloped with Priscilla Whitcomb, Smith College student and daughter of U.S. Attorney Louis G. Whitcomb of Springfield.

The pair informed Miss Whitcomb's father last week that they planned to marry.

Ingenuity Triumphs And Moonshine Goes

DEKALB, Miss., Nov. 13.—A sheriff's ingenuity triumphed over legal obstacles preventing him from dumping 2,272 gallons of confiscated moonshine into any stream, as a hazard to fish, or on the grounds as a fire hazard. Since he couldn't keep the liquor either, he found a cooperative farmer who let him funnel the booze into a sand pit.

Wisconsin has 277,440 acres of state forest lands.

Sight, Hearing Tests Conducted In Palm Springs District Schools

Testing for sight and hearing defects is progressing satisfactorily, according to reports by Paul Summit, director of special services for the Palm Springs Unified School District.

A special instrument for sight testing, the Ortho-Rater, has been recently purchased through the funds provided jointly by the Lion's Club of Palm Springs, and the Palm Springs Unified School District. A Bosch and Lomb optical device, it is considered one of the best machines on the market now available to schools in checking for visual handicaps.

Summit said that testing is being done as it is very possible for a pupil to be doing poorly in school because of his inability to see adequately.

Actual use of the sight checker is being carried on by Anne Donahue, school nurse, who is checking all the pupils in grades 1, 3 and 5 with the new machine. If a pupil is found to have a vision handicap the parents are notified and recommendations made regarding further checks on the defective vision.

Hearing defects have also been cited as a cause of poor achievement in school. Wilbur Mentzer, speech and hearing teacher, checks pupils with hearing problems with a special device called an audiometer.

Since physical handicaps develop gradually the pupils or his parent and teachers may not be aware of a problem until it is detected through extensive checks.

Dr. Wallace R. Muelder, schools superintendent, in commenting on these machines said "we are indeed fortunate to have such fine cooperation with the schools so as to have these machines available. We will do a better job on educating boys and girls if we can help them over sight and hearing problems."

COMPLETELY NEW STYLING of the 1957 Cadillac is readily apparent in this Sedan de Ville, the four-door hardtop introduced last year. The overall car is lower, the hood and rear deck are below the fender line, and a restyled Cadillac tail fin, somewhat reminiscent of the Eldorado fin, has been adapted. A new instrument panel, deep post steering column and wide selection of luxurious trims are featured in interior styling. The 1957 Cadillac went on display at Plaza Motors local dealer.

1957 Cadillac is Completely New From Top to Bottom, Bumper to Bumper, But Still is Unmistakable Cadillac

From bumper to bumper, from top to bottom, the 1957 Cadillac is completely new. Yet, in appearance it is unmistakably Cadillac. It went on display Monday at Plaza Motors, 290 North Indian Avenue.

In announcing the new Cadillac, Don E. Ahrens, general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car Division and vice president of General Motors, said, "the 1957 car represents the most complete model change in Cadillac history."

"Our engineers and stylists literally created a new car this year," Ahrens said, "but still they retained its Cadillac personality. The over-all silhouette has been lowered as much as three inches; the hood and rear deck are lower than the fender profile; the traditional Cadillac tail fin is restyled and two additional four-door hardtops make their appearance in 1957."

THESE DRAMATIC changes are to be found on eight of the 10 models. The two Eldorados, the Biarritz and the Seville, are distinctively different, featuring a rear quarter panel and rear end styling that puts the "dream car" into reality as a limited production car.

"An engineering development in the form of a revolutionary new frame has allowed us to achieve our new low silhouette," Ahrens explained. "With this frame the body is secured to outrigger mounting brackets rather than the side rails of former years. Not only does this permit lowering of the car but torsional rigidity is increased.

Like the rest of the car, the front end styling is all new. Unquestionably, the cellular grille effect, gull-wing bumpers and bumper guards are reminiscent of recent Cadillac styling, but they have been redone to tie in with the low, sweeping design of the 1957 models.

With this multitude of new physical features included in the 1957 Cadillac, a complete redecorating job was called for. And it happened.

Library Shows Increase Again

Welwood Murray Memorial Library continued to show an increase in book circulation during the month of October, Dorothy Bear, librarian, reported today.

Books circulated during the month totalled 9,901, compared to 8,477 during the same period in 1955.

The branch library at 1146 South Palm Canyon Drive has started a Story Hour on Wednesdays for the primary grade children at 3:30 p.m.

Brilliantly new in Beauty... Brilliantly new in Performance!

Represented above are the most significant advancements we have ever been privileged to present to the motoring public. This is Cadillac for 1957—entirely new in design and engineering... and bringing to the world's highways a wholly new standard of motor car quality and excellence.

Cadillac's renowned stylists have created a new Cadillac beauty... majestically graceful of line... wonderfully exciting in spirit... and with a new balance of chrome and glass and steel.

Cadillac's master coachcrafters have brought a new measure of luxury and glamour to the car's interiors... with gorgeous new fabrics and leathers... with inspiring new colors and patterns... and with marvelous new appointments on every hand.

And Cadillac's world-famous engineers have introduced a sensational new concept of automotive performance... with two great new engines... with an even smoother, more responsive Hydra-Matic Drive... with greatly improved power steering and power braking... with a revolutionary new frame design... and with a host of other vital engineering advancements.

These dramatic Cadillac achievements are being presented for 1957 in ten body styles, including the breath-taking Eldorado series. Each is a Cadillac masterpiece... a brilliant tribute to the men who build the Standard of the World.

We cordially invite you to see... to inspect... and to drive the brilliantly new 1957 Cadillac at your very first convenience.

Woman's Club to Hold Second Meeting of Year

At their second meeting of the 1956-57 season, to be held at the Shadow Mountain Club on Thursday, the Palm Desert Woman's Club will present as its entertainment feature, Mrs. Florence Churchill Casebeer, noted writer, critic and interpreter of books.

Mrs. Casebeer's subjects will be "This Moving World" and "Africa in the Modern World." Luncheon at 12:30 will precede the business meeting and the program, for which reservations should be made through Mrs. James Easley 76-2171 and Mrs. Walter Markley, 76-3151 Palm Desert, or Mrs. Otto Emmons, Palm Springs 8-4721.

The combined membership of the last two years has reached two hundred, and any woman who would like to join this group is urged to do so now, as the December Christmas party meeting will be closed to non-members.

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

Saturday night, the Date Empire Shiner Club held a "Ladies night" dinner dance at Shadow Mountain Club. Fred Siemen was the general chairman of this affair, and Mrs. Roy Bolton, wife of the president, was the official hostess of the evening.

Mrs. Louis Spielberger of Newport Beach arrived in New York last week aboard the Queen Mary after enjoying a European trip. She came directly to the desert. She visited with the Clarence Becks. Mr. Spielberger and Betty Beck are cousins.

Mrs. G. Powell Harding, quite a famous and well-known artist is living here in Palm Desert. She is a member of the California Water Color Society, an international group including Canada and Mexico. She is having a showing of her pictures in the Los Angeles Museum, also in the Greek Theatre in the same city. She was the head of the Los Angeles Women Painters of the West and in charge of the Santa Monica Cities Art galleries. Mrs. Harding will soon start art classes here. She and Mr. Harding have a home on San Jaun Way.

Miss Edith Eddy Ward hosted a large cocktail party around the pool of Mrs. Bobbie Reichert. Most of her guests went on to Shadow Mountain Club for dinner. Among her guests were seen Mrs. Dorothy Grant, Jim Harstads, Rudd Hackborns, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander, the Pat Ritchies, Ned Blades, Fred Blades, Clancy Smiths, Mrs. Harold Smith, Ed Schills, Major Slaters, the John Fitzgeralds, Helen Roberts, Williams Bihees, Bob Waters, John Hughes, Kay Olesons, Henry Cheesemans, Ralph Rowlands, Clarence Goodwins and many more.

Mr. and Mrs. James McKinley of Los Angeles gave a small dinner party last Thursday honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Bibee who were celebrating their first wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moseley have returned to Flintridge after spending two weeks in their desert home on Ironwood Street.

Mrs. St. John Fields, mother of Virginia Fields Parker, who spent several weeks here, has returned to her home in England.

Hal Kapp has returned from a business trip to New York. He returned by the way of Cleveland, where he was joined by his mother and they drove west together. Mrs. Kapp has decided to make her home in California. Hal is enthusiastic about the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, which has become outstanding enough to be invited to tour Europe next year, as his brother is a member of the orchestra.

Last weekend, Mrs. Charlotte Steward was surprised by a visit from her son, Richard (Ricky) Steward, who is stationed at Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas, Nev. Her son, Harry, with his family from San Diego, also joined the family party.

Mrs. K. Broughan of Balboa spent one day here last week seeing all her friends. She lived here before moving to the coast. Mrs. Isabelle Belyea hosted a small dinner party in her honor.

The Sun Lodge Colony has taken on the winter "look" with many owners and guests in residence: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans and their daughter of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Portridge of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Graybill and family of Escondido, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Nelson of San Marino, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dixon of Beverly Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Bagby of Pebble Beach.

Frank Chilson's Buy Beck Home

One of Palm Desert's outstanding homes was sold this week by Betty Stewart Beck, daughter of the late E. W. Stewart, president of the Catalina Swim Suit Company. Frank and Edris Chilson of Brentwood are the new owners of this home on the corner of Pinyon and Joshua Tree Street.

Betty Stewart Beck was represented by Edith Eddy Ward, real estate broker, and the Chilsons were represented by Betty Beck, Realtor, in the transaction.

Recent guests at Shadow Mountain Terrace included Mrs. Maurice L. Wood and daughter, Susie, Mrs. H. Grube and Judy Grube, the J. E. Gannons and Leonard Prices. Also Mrs. E. Ray McCune, Dr. and Mrs. George Hazel-tine, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Braly and Mr. and Mrs. John Heffertlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chartien and sons, Michael and Ronald, were weekend guests of Mrs. E. Reichert.

Desert Air's Air Strip Highlights Busy Weekend

Much activity was in evidence on the air strip of the Desert Air Hotel over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dalles flew in from Portland, and from Kalamazoo came Lee Elkins. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leitch fly in twice a week from their home in Pasadena. Mr. Leitch is the architect for the new Desert Sun Homes on Rio Del Sol.

Henry King, one of the top directors at Twentieth Century Fox, landed his new Apache plane Sunday and returned to Hollywood Monday.

Also weekending at the Desert Air were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Gardner of La Jolla, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lockee of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Allmand from Los Angeles. Dining in the Compass Room Saturday evening were Mona Freeman, Bill Morrow and Pete Pettito.

COLUMBIA, Conn. — An unidentified man used better judgment than several housewives when he bid 75 cents for an old tin bread box of a Lions Club auction. Inside the box were some books, and inside one of the books was $1.25.

Rancho Mirage

By JEAN PATANE

Lee Stowell and Eve Evans have taken over the cafe adjacent to "Al Ames' Shell Service" on Highway 111. Lee and Eve, originally from Missouri, before coming to the desert last April, operated several cafes in Los Angeles. Contrary to the policy of the former owners, Lee and Eve will be open before breakfast in the morning and until nine at night, including Sundays.

In the yard of her Rancho Mirage home, Shirley Wall has a number of lime trees, and she gives the luscious limes to her customers at the Palm Desert Cleaners.

Vee Nisley is completing the John C. Tyler's home, transforming the interior adobe to traditional modern.

Returning from a buying trip to Los Angeles, Ralph Dietz of "Dietz Designs" now has accessories for garden and patio on display in the Rancho Mirage Shop, supplementing their new service of design and execution for intimate home gardens. Among the items are quinquets, ming horses, Hawaiian flares and bird baths.

Alice Parry White, who opened her Palm Desert Five and Dime Store last September, took coffee to the members of the Palm Desert Election board to accompany the early morning doughnuts brought in by George Michel of Michel's Pastry Shop.

Edith and George Michel had as their houseguest, Kathy Saul of Coronado.

Ranchers, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson (Joan Bennett's daughter) were enjoying dinner at Okerlunds Desert Vendome Restaurant in Indio.

After a summer at their Idyllwild Rock Pile, Mr. and Mrs. Don Butterworth are now at their Desert Rock Pile on Highway 111. After closing the Idyllwild shop they spent a week in Phoenix visiting friends before returning to the desert to redecorate and make all new show cases for the Highway 111 Rock Pile and Gem Shop.

A "Spontaneous Surprise" in celebration of Bill Boland's birthday last Thursday just seemed to happen. He was at his new units the "Cashah," where the electricity had been turned on that afternoon, with Mrs. Boland and his father, Charles Boland of San Diego, who moved there from Philadelphia 35 years ago. Friends seeing the place bright with lights dropped in. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCallum, he designed the "Cashah;" Manny Strand, well known former band leader; Mr. and Mrs.

Henry Brenton, Mr. and Mrs. Al Ames, Mr. and Mrs. "Chuck" Vermillion and Mr. and Mrs. Don Walker (he manages the Firestone store in Las Vegas) helped make the day a festive one. The "Cashah" will be open in the very near future.

Over the weekend Liz Warren of the Del Sol Realty Company entertained Fern Shore of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aitchison and sons, Jim, John and Tom, are now at home at the Brewer Ranch. Jim is a student at Nellie Coffman Junior High, and John and Tom are at Cathedral City School.

The Cathedral City P.T.A. has a "Surprise" as the highlight of their Pot Luck supper scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 6, when they will present "Cpeotlevig."

Dr. Catherwood Moves Offices

Dr. William W. Catherwood, Jr., who has been practicing in Cathedral City during the winter months and at Lake Tahoe in the summer, this week announced the opening of his new office for the practice of medicine, osteopathy and surgery at 3333 E Street, San Bernardino.

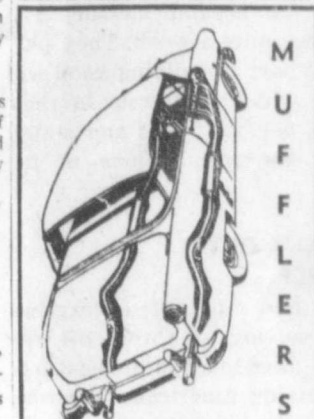

Noted Artist to Direct Fair Choreography

Choreography for the 1957 version of the Arabian Nights Pageant of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival will be directed by a former member of the Royal Danish and Swedish ballet and theatre groups.

Production Director Dorothy Gavin, Indio, announced that Mascha Beyo has been signed to supervise the dancing for the next pageant at the Indio fairgrounds. Miss Beyo now resides in Los Angeles, where she conducts a theatre dance school.

In addition to the Danish and Swedish background, the new director performed at the Paris Fair, Covent Gardens in London, and toured around the world with the Trudi Schoop Dance Company.

SHE RECENTLY completed a dance commitment in the film "The Ten Commandments," one of a dozen movies in which Miss Beyo has appeared.

Work on the Indio pageant, produced and performed by residents of Coachella Valley as a highlight of the annual fair and festival, has already started, according to Mrs. Gavin.

A new script is in preparation, and plans for new choreography are under way. Dance tryouts are scheduled for early December.

TENTATIVE PLANS call for nine performances of the pageant from Feb. 1 through 24 with a cast of about 100 persons. Miss Beyo is expected to dance the solo lead.

GOOD WILL GATHERING

Between 400 and 500 men and women—members of Palm Springs' five civic clubs and their husbands and wives—will gather in the new Starlite room at Chi Chi tonight for a good will meeting of these local civic groups. Initiated at the suggestion of the Rotary club five years ago, this meeting has become increasingly popular and contributed a great deal toward building a fine community spirit in Palm Springs.

Much good can come from the gathering together of these business and professional men and women of the Village in a cordial, friendly atmosphere. This, of course, holds true at the individual luncheons of the clubs each week. The idea of getting them all together once a year is a good one. The better these people become acquainted with each other the more they will be inclined to work together on community betterment programs. They represent almost all of the well-established business and professional firms of the community and are leaders in many other civic organizations. They have much in common and stand to benefit a great deal from community cooperation.

World-Wide Scale

The national and international scope of these civic clubs is likewise contributing to better understanding among nations around the globe. They have more than a million members. Rotary, for example, has 8,856 clubs in almost 100 countries, with a membership of over 420,000. The membership of Lions International is even larger. These civic club members throughout the world are working together—through correspondence, personal contacts at annual conventions and in their travels—for the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace. Their activities go far beyond meeting and eating together once a week. They play an important part in building good will between the various interests in their communities, between cities and states, and between the free nations of the world.

HUNGARIANS CRY FOR UN HELP

The anguished cries of courageous Hungarians seeking to throw off the Russian yoke have touched the hearts of all freedom-loving Americans. We wish so much that there is some way this nation and the United Nations could go to the rescue of the little band that has still been holding out against Soviet tanks and guns with pitiful weapons.

The Russian troops have no business being in Hungary. When Austria received her independence last year, the Soviet Union lost its last good pretext for stationing troops in Hungary—the excuse that it needed a supply line to Austria. Russian troops are in Hungary now only on the invitation of a government which the Hungarians quite obviously despise.

Is this not imperialism, interference with the internal affairs of a nation and a threat to the peace of the world? Those critics of imperialism, interference—led by Prime Minister Nehru of India—should join in a condemnation of the use of Russian troops to ruthlessly slaughter Hungarians fighting for freedom.

The effectiveness of the United Nations to keep the peace and hold out hope for enslaved peoples is receiving a severe test in the Egyptian and Hungarian situations. Let us hope it can accomplish enough to continue confidence in the UN.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Liz Taylor Gets $75,000 Ring

That engagement ring Mike Todd bought for Liz Taylor set him back $75,000. It'll take an awful lot of ticket sales to Todd's "Around the World in 80 Days" to pay for this one! . . . Alan Nixon, Marie Wilson's ex-actor-spouse is now managing the Carmel Theatre here on Santa Monica Boulevard. . . . Instructions in a new do-it-yourself mink kit recommended for movie starlets by Vogue Magazine's Allene Talmie start like this: "First catch 52 minks." . . . Look Magazine flew a man out from New York to write a cover story on Jerry Lewis and his new recording-producing-plus comedian career.

"THE WAYWARD BUS" won't take off at 20th till July but when it does Martine Carol will be on it. . . . Robert and Raymond Hakim will remake "La Ronde" in Paris in April as "The Merry-Go-Round" and have offered Arlene Dahl a ride on it. . . . They're gonna have to spread the parking meters in Beverly Hills to accommodate those lo-o-o-o-o 1957 cars. . . . Joe Mankiewicz flew in from New York to talk Monty Clift into starring in his film version of Graham Greene's "Violent American." . . . Sign on Sunset Boulevard: "A Capitalist Is a Fellow Who Doesn't Have a Red Scat."

I WATCHED, in Paramount's commissary, as the photos of Martin & Lewis, now bitter enemies, were removed from the wall where they once hung side-by-side and hung elsewhere. Dean's was hung alongside Stan Ladd's and Jerry's was placed next to Grace Kelly's. . . . P.S.: Tony Perkins and Bill Holden are now side-by-side in the old Martin & Lewis niche. . . . Danny Kaye, back in Hollywood after his long stay in Chicago, walked into the commissary, a symphony in beige, spotted costume designer Edith Head, strode right over to her table, picked her up his arms and kissed her. When she struggled (?) free, Edith sighed and said, "Danny's the only man I know who can smell pretty and be virile at the same time!" . . . Paramount prexy Barney Balaban doesn't know it yet but his yacht will play itself in Warner's "A Face in the Crowd." . . . Katharine Cornell wrote the foreword for Edward Goodman's new book, "Make-Believe, the Art of Acting," and Scribner's is spelling her name wrong in the ads!

TV TOPICS — Jess Oppenheimer, who proved his proficiency as a producer of comedy six years ago when he cooked up the "I Love Lucy" lunacies, is blueprinting a new comedy show — under orders from NBC — to star Nanette Fabray. If anyone can whip up the proper showcase for Miss Fabray's delightful talents, Oppenheimer's the boy. . . . Just about every magazine you've ever heard of is begging for a picture of Carrie Frances Fisher, Debbie and Eddie's wee one, but the Fishers won't oblige for at least another three months. . . . June Havoc's secretary is named Miss Morningstar. . . . No one will ever be able to tell in mere words the real story of Lillian Roth's amazing comeback — of the 10 agonizing years she spent fighting her way back — an inspiration to all young performers who are now butting their heads against producers' doors. . . . The aforementioned being a prelude to an announcement that Lillian has opened at a very swanky saloon in Palm Springs called the Chi Chi Club.

BOB HOPE phoned to say he's heard about something new — they're coming out with phonograph needles for machines that play risque records! . . . Cece Barker, producer of the Red Skelton Show, claims a top comic such as Skelton can play a dramatic role better than a serious actor but that few dramatic actors know how to handle comedy. Skelton got his chance to back up his producer's words in "The Big Slide" on "Playhouse 90." And, thinking back to Ed Wynn's memorable performance in "Requiem for a Heavyweight," also on "Playhouse 90," I think Barker knew what he was talking about before ol' Pagliacci Skelton stepped before those hot lights. . . . Three different segments of ABC-TV's "Wire Service" series will be shot simultaneously in three different countries this month: Dane Clark films one in London, George Brent is doing one in Mexico City and Mercedes McCambridge is shooting one in Hollywood.

"HANKERCHIEF USED BY A SWORDFISH"

You may object to this Doodle because you don't like Swordfish, but Swordfish aren't too crazy about people, so it works out even. However, here are some extra titles if you want to be stubborn: 1. Aerial photograph of customers waiting outside of hair growing institute. 2. Screen at drive-in movie that's next to a hunting lodge. 3. Flag used at General Custer's last stand. 4. Snapshot of a very shy skin diver. 5. Rear view of a postage stamp licked by a man who was drinking champagne. 6. Juggler passing an open window. 7. Napkin used by a fire eater. 8. Piece of air-conditioned ice. 9. Rear view of a dart game. 10. Flying saucers as seen by man in upside-down glass bottom boat.

THIS SIDE OF The Sun
By Phat

We say we're the most As a desert resort. The best, in the way Spas go. But when roses parade We won't be in line. The desert will be Indio.

When millions, in person and on Video, watch the Tournament of Roses parade come January 1, 1957, there'll be no float representing the World's Foremost Desert Resort. Council displayed sales resistance when the Chamber sought to put the bite on them to help defray the cost.

SO THE DESERT will be represented by Indio in that parade. The Indio Chamber of Commerce has accepted an invitation to enter and is going all out with a $12,000 effort. The local Chamber only wanted half that amount and of that half, asked the city to only pay half.

Oh, well, there are other years coming.

And I thought I detected a bit of sarcasm in a remark Jimmy Cooper made to me. Said he: "Well, when we get that third bridge across Tahquitz Creek, midway between Palm Canyon Drive and Sunrise Way, we may have a Rose Tourney float to drive across it."

Sounded to me like a 'nasty crack.

YOU KNOW, now that the metropolitan papers are printing our building totals each month and listing us as one of the fastest growing communities in the southland, how about having our weather figures in the papers each day?

Take last week for instance, Palm Springs was cooler than the beaches. Registered a 95 here, 97 at Long Beach and other coast towns. People had to come here to cool off.

The only time I noted Palm Springs temperatures in the Los Angeles papers was in summer—and that wasn't good.

THE MIDWEST and east is purloining our stuff. Checking through a New York paper the other day, noted many advertisements for Dude Ranches. Also "ranches for sale," "ranch houses," and a large advertisement for a "Sun Canyon Resort."

Also one Hacienda, meaning a home.

Consulted Mr. Webster and find that a ranch (western U.S. and Canada) is "an establishment x x x for grazing and rearing of horses, cattle, et cetera" or it could be a large farm such as a fruit ranch. Maybe on Dude Ranches they graze dudes.

And a Hacienda is not a home. "A large estate or works or establishment," say the Merriams, speaking for Mr. Webster.

ALL YOU HAVE to do is to change the "u" to an "a" and you have a Litterbug instead of a litterbug. Mrs. G and I have had one hanging in our car for a year and woe unto me if I don't make use of it.

still insist that litterbags should be standard equipment on every auto, put there by law. That would help a little bit in this stepped-up campaign to end the disgraceful look of our roadsides.

One man posed a question. "Supposing I don't discard a beer can and a patrolman stops me. If he sees that can, couldn't that be prima facie evidence that I had been guzzling? Police have a quaint idea that drinking has something to do with drunken driving, you know."

DR. BENJAMIN GOLDBERG

Rheumatic Heart and Pregnancy

Heart disease has now surpassed the other serious conditions such as hemorrhage, toxemia and infection as a leading cause of maternal death in some of the country's largest hospitals.

This is not because heart disease has become so much more aggravated or worse in its incidence, but because the mortality from other causes has been so overwhelmingly reduced. However, the very careful attention given to the pregnant heart patient and the onset of diastolic heart muscle with congestion prevented, the mortality in such mothers can be strikingly reduced.

At this time approximately one-half of the mothers who report to the hospital with congestive heart failure in the latter months of pregnancy, or at the time of delivery, can be expected to die.

Fortunately, only about two per cent of pregnant women have heart disease, and less than one-half of these are rheumatic in origin. Twenty-five years ago a mortality of more than 10 per cent in such patients was common. Recently various clinics have reported deaths ranging between one and three per cent, and figures as low as 0.64 per cent have been achieved.

IN THE HANDS of the heart specialist, who takes over the management of these patients very early in their pregnancy, almost every case of rheumatic heart disease can be brought to a successful termination. Therefore, the combination of heart specialist and obstetrician should be of relief upon very early to achieve the better result.

Pregnancy imposes unavoidable burdens upon the heart. As the uterus and unborn child enlarge, there is a progressive rise in oxygen consumption, and very frequently a secondary anemia develops with an increase in the rate of the maternal heart.

The blood pressure is not markedly altered, although the diastolic or minimal pressure tends to fall. There is also an increase in the vital capacity, which is the amount of air and oxygen taken into the lungs and the heart rate increases by approximately 14,000 extra beats per day, which is 30 to 50 per cent over the non-pregnant level.

FORTUNATELY, HOWEVER, during the last four weeks or so of pregnancy the heart output of blood diminishes and approaches the non-pregnant level, but the oxygen consumption and total body water remain high. It is very important to keep these conditions at a low level.

In the presence of a rheumatic heart with heart valve disease, a further burden is thrown upon the heart muscle, which increases the difficulty encountered in continuing heart action. It then, as mentioned above, is most important for patients with chronic rheumatic heart disease and pregnancy to have the services of a competent heart specialist, as well as the obstetrician who is to deliver the child.

Have known Herb Samson for many years. Sunday we paid him a visit at his home on San Jacinto Way. There's a good story in Samson but it's hard to extricate. But believe me, it's for no other reason than that the man is loathe to talk about himself. As the vice president and manager of the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank we have in Herb as much of a "home product" as the institution which he heads here.

He came to Palm Springs for health reasons way back in 1928. In the real estate business he became a recognized court authority in superior courts in this county, Los Angeles and San Bernardino. In the insurance business finally under the banner of Samson and Curtis, he and his partner built a flourishing business. But banking was close to his heart and when Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank decided to take over the Desert Bank it was quite natural for that institution to pick Herb Samson as its manager. That he is today and doing a swell job.

"The future of Palm Springs is rosier than I can depict in words. The growth of the area to the southeast of Palm Springs is nothing short of phenomenal," declared Samson. "Our bank is close to this growth. Watching it with ever growing watchfulness. Palm Springs has only begun to grow."

SAMSON SAID THAT deposits with his bank have increased manifold and are continuing to zoom upward. He said his organization is eager to discuss home and business loans at all times and "there isn't any one too small for us to discuss his or her problem."

The father of four children, three boys and a girl, he is quite a homebody. For a banker he is made of a mould that is quite different than any I have met before. There's an eagerness in the man's voice to listen to your problem as if the whole world depended upon his hearing every word.

There's a good story in Herb Samson and one of these days I'm going to corner him and make him give. Meanwhile, we'll take him as one of those guys you'd call the salt of the earth and we will accept him as the head of a great banking institution. Both of them, Samson and the Citizen's, have the great interest of this entire resort area well in hand.

EVERYBODY SHOULD bow in the direction of Cliff Campbell and Mac McDonald, co-chairmen of Western Week, and the large number of persons who helped so civically in staging the event.

It's a titanic job to stage such an event and every year, as the City of Palm Springs grows larger and larger, the job becomes even more mammoth. It is our hope that everybody enjoyed the week of festivities.

We must confess that it was a bourbon colored storm which enveloped your reporter Thursday night. Yours truly got himself fouled up with newspapermen and when members of the Fourth Estate got together—do you know what they talk about? Newspaper work and news stories about people. The next time Bill Best, Los Angeles Bureau chief for United Press, and that guy Wayne Sargeant of the same organization come to town, I'm going to hide. Or will I?

Talked for a moment or two to Danny Kaye, without a doubt one of the most versatile actors on the American stage and in motion pictures today. Paramount in our conversation was the sudden death of Victor Young, great composer. Kaye was shocked by Young's passing and he had nothing but the best to say about the man's talents. Our conversation only lasted a few minutes as Danny was on his way out after dinner at The Dunes.

I HATE SOME assignments as a newspaper reporter and probably the worst was when I knocked at the door of Herbert Legg's home the other night. He admitted me and quickly recognized me as a reporter. But when I was, by virtue of my assignment, forced to ask him some pointed questions about his recommendation of William O'Connor as district attorney for L.A., he immediately came up with the statement: "Mr. Rashall, you are invading the privacy of my home." But in a moment or two he came back with: "I apologize for making that statement. I know that you have to ask me certain questions." I was bowled over by the graciousness of the man. But that's the life of a news hawk.

In answer to your letter Mr. J. (Sandy) Sanford Rose, of Chicago. First, I must thank you for reading Unedited. However, with reference to the purchase of the Bonaire Village, I must inform you that my information as to the buyers came directly from what some people term the "horse's mouth." You say that Mr. Joe Echbourn of Gumbel's and Charlie Bern of 21 Brands, both of New York City had or do not have any part in the purchase of the Bonaire and that such information may be embarrassing to both of these gentlemen. How such a story can be embarrassing I do not know, but I'll go along with you and quote from your letter that the only persons involved in the purchase are: yourself, Maxwell (Scotty) Rubin of Chicago and Palm Springs, and Edward Vovnov of the same city. Thank you, sir.

EARL WILSON:

Jerry Lester Now Raps TV

NEW YORK — I sat in at a back table as Jerry Lester flung himself out on stage at the Latin Quarter, collapsed in a noisy pratfall at the mike, and came up with a screaming laugh. "Impression of a candidate doing a nose-dive!" he howled, dusting himself off.

Through it all, the onetime St. Louis and Chicago comedian whose "Broadway Open House" was the first big late-night TV show, kept up either a giggle or a guffaw.

The mirth was of course playing-acting. But Jerry says it hides no broken heart, and that he's quite happy out of the TV meat-grinder which is ripping the guts out of some of the comics who succeeded him. Back in '50 and '51 he and Dagmar were so big on NBC that, as he vaguely remembers it now, their CBS opposition got no rating at all. "They paid me off," he shrugs now.

"IT ALWAYS reminds me of a story about Eddie Cantor and Georgie Jessel. "Jessel told Cantor, 'They bought off my picture contract for $100,000.' Cantor said, 'I saw your last picture. I think you could have got $200,000.' Maybe if I'd stayed around longer, they'd have paid me more to buy me off."

Of course, he's got "some new ideas for TV" as every person living has. "By the time I'm ready to go back, it's gonna be new people watching already!" And with a distant look in his eye he mentioned that back in 1940 he was on Kraft Music Hall radio in Hollywood with Bing Crosby.

"We didn't know how easy radio was. "We used to come in on Thursday afternoon in our golf clothes to do our Thursday night program. We were pretty sore because it interfered with our golf game."

NOW, BEING on the sidelines, he can criticize TV.

"The seam's out of it, it's industrialized, all the big stars have become tycoons. The talk is always, 'He got a 35' or 'He sold the product out.' Nobody says 'What kind of a show did he do?'"

Jerry now lives in Florida far from the maddening Madison Avenue crowd and he'll do a "Ziegfeld Follies" show at the Miami Beach Latin Quarter this winter.

Probably he'll also watch TV and brood about what once was, and may be yet again.

"But you know who's making the big money now in television?" he asked. "The guy painting those signs — changing the names of those presidents and vice presidents and stars, on the office doors."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Herbert Hoover heard a CBS TV technician call him "a living doll" and asked his sec'y Bunnie Miller to find out what it meant. After careful inquiry, she reported. "It means you're O.K., Mr. Hoover — it's no insult!"

Good line in "Shoestring '57" when somebody says: "You don't know what to believe now. The Bible says one thing, Cecil B. DeMille says something else." Liberace flew back to L.A. after his Royal Command Performance for Queen Elizabeth was cancelled due to the crisis . . . Dick Haymes and Kitty Kelly Tannenbaum were a-lunchin' at Toots? . . . "A new Jack Carson" emerges in "Everybody Loves Me," opening in Princeton. Playwrights Arthur Marx (Groucho's son) and Marnie Manheim have done a straight play about a top TV star who's cracking up (Who dat?) . . . Joe E. Lewis, who opens soon at the Balinese Room in Galveston, will be visited there by beautiful Minnesota born Karen Hanson (the future Mrs. Lewis?) . . . Lee Collins, the doll from Dallas and Denver, goes into the movie, "The Village," produced by Barry Mahon.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Two advertising men dined at Toots Shor's and one said, "I'll toss you to see who puts this on his expense account."

Joe E. Ross complains that his girl is a light drinker: "She starts drinking as soon as it gets light." That's earl, brother.

Committee of 25 Club Given Party

Committee of Twenty Five members were royally entertained at their clubhouse Sunday evening, with Santos de Jesus as host. Santos, who has catered for the Club over a period of years, arranged this as a welcome home and a gesture of appreciation.

Huge bouquets of pompon chrysanthemums decorated the clubhouse and double gardenia corsages was presented each feminine guest by Mrs. Santos. A big red-and-white floral elephant stood on the mantelpiece.

Johnny Boyle played and sang during the evening.

The buffet table was a masterpiece... a symphony in food... with the canapes so artistically contrived that they looked like little pastries, and the whole hamiced and decorated like cakes. There was turkey and ham, crab Louis, smoked oysters, cold pork slices, a platter of assorted cheeses, relishes and stuffed dates, in tempting array.

There was a telegram from Mr. and Mrs. James French who are still in San Francisco, regretting that they were unable to attend and sending greetings to Santos and to the assembled Club members.

Among those attending were the F. C. Doughertys (just back from Honolulu), the Frank Bennetts and their daughter Dede, who was home for the weekend. The Fred Ingrams arrived with Mrs. L. M. Goanini, and the Bill Reichels with their houseguests Dr. and Mrs. Charles McLeod of Oakland. Others were the Neil Jamisons, John Ballingers, Ben Shearers, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, the Thomas Bannons, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Marsh, the George Robertsons, Gus Kettmanns, Max Schwabs.

Relatives Here As Houseguests

Esther Gilbert owner of El Moroco and La Sesta Bungalows, has as houseguests her nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loschie of Los Angeles. Sunday evening she entertained them at dinner at a local restaurant along with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reinboth.

Mrs. Gilbert's nephew has the outstanding record for donating blood to the Red Cross. Up to date he has donated 64 pints.

Horace Heidt's Twin Sons Here

Visiting at the Lone Palm for the past few days were the twin sons of Horace Heidt, Jack and Jerry from Santa Monica. Jack is now a jet pilot with the United States Air Force.

Also at the same place were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ritz, of the Ritz Brothers, and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Cover, (he is script writer for the Ritz brothers.)

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Steckler of 1657 Verbena Drive, have as their houseguest Ben Light well-known piano recording artist for R. C. A. Victor. Thursday evening they entertained him at dinner at the Racquet Club.

A COCKTAIL BUFFET Saturday night at the Glenn Thomas home on Manzanita, entertained about 80 of their friends. Pictured are: Mrs. Thomas, seated, and the host, standing, with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ambrose. The Ambroses have a house at Thunderbird, and he is retired from the tuna packing business but still owns a fleet of tuna clippers. (Desert Sun Photo)

Women Turn Out for Fashion Luncheon-Kangaroo Court

A predominantly feminine crowd filled the Ranch Club Friday for the western style show luncheon, followed by the Kangaroo Court.

Palm Springs hats and western costumes were sprinkled through the crowd, and both those who had them and those who didn't received sentences from Judge Frank Bogart. Fines, however, were light for the most part. The court still raised around $200.

During the luncheon hour western styles were paraded through the dining room with models crossing an elevated ramp. Every type of western clothes, from utilitarian to extra-fancy, was shown. Participating shops were Rasmussens, Ross of Palm Springs, Marge Riley, Evans, and Smoke Tree Ranch.

Entrance of Mrs. Cliff Campbell, wife of the co-chairman of Western Week, and their small daughter Linda opened the style show, which was commented by Frank Bogart. Both mother and daughter wore squaw dresses, and pig-tailed Linda made a big hit.

Ann Ellison was a pistol-packing model, as the red frontier outfit she modeled was embroidered in a gun pattern. Tex Masterson was dubbed the "Girl of the Golden West" as she drew applause for the golden metallic cloth shirt and skirt outfit she wore. Michelle Ailor was nothing short of sensational wearing a fringed, divided skirt and shirt outfit of desert blue, with striking golden hat, jacket and blue boots. Gladys Stryker was especially attractive in a black and white squaw dress, with silver trim, and Joan Flynn was dramatic in a turquoise and desert sand outfit, with turquoise hat, boots and accessories.

One of the larger tables, at which decorative hats were noticeable, was Mrs. Harry Warren's party, which included: Mmes. Roy Carlson, Leo Blumb, Jack Copass, Chet Matsum, Al Sirott, Jack Diamond of San Marino and Newport Beach, John Stevens of Palm Desert, and Sis Harrell and Isabella Charbneau.

Saturday Night Dinner Group

Dining at Don the Beachcombers Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Don Botorff, Mr. and Mrs. Al Weingarten and their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stone from Newport Beach.

Sunday the Botorffs had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson from Riverside.

Next time you marinate vegetables or fish for salad, try adding a few tablespoons of finely chopped celery to the marinade.

Mrs. Nora Simpson had as her guests Mmes. Thomas Holland, Frank Sorenson, Bow Herbert and Howard Mathews. Mrs. Al Rose's table included Mmes. David Margolis and her daughter-in-law Mrs. Al Marolis of Washington D.C., Marty Cobin and Joe Kuri. Elsinore Machris was there with Irene Harlow. Among others in the crowd Mrs. Terry Ray, Adele Colgan, Theresa Press, Jeano Bailard, Mmes. John Boothby, W. P. Aikin, Bill Rashall, Kenny Paul, Ernie Dunlevie, Samuel Salinger, a group of doctors' wives here for the convention, and a table of Los Compadres members presided over by Perry Sanders and Jimmy Cooper.

High Sheriff Jimmy Cooper and his girl deputies rounded up the "prisoners" for the Kangaroo Court.

Special entertainment, in addition to the music of Hal White's orchestra and the songs of Clessa Williams, was provided by Tex Kidwell.

Thomases Entertain at Buffet

The Manzanita Drive home of Lillian and Glenn Thomas was the scene of festivities Saturday night, when they entertained around 80 guests at a cocktail buffet.

Both the spacious living room and the area outside, around the big five-sided swimming pool, was filled with social chatter. The buffet, catered by Santos, was set up on the lanai with a tempting array of foods and hors d'oeuvres.

Emily DeWare was there with her houseguests, Joy Ferguson of Santa Barbara, Mrs. M. Landreth Keleher and Mrs. Mel Smith, who were all down for the Women's Invitational Golf Tournament at Thunderbird.

Among other guests were the Joe Froggatts, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ambrose, Daphne and Jim Tuma, the Barney Hinkles, Maggie and Milt Hicks, the George Barretts, Sally and Holly Morse, Mrs. Charles Becker, Mrs. Dolph Obergfel, the Adolph Bremers.

Judy Howard was escorted by Mark Kramer, who is here from Denver, Dr. and Mrs. William McBride, Ethel and Jack Luccareni, and Harry Von Zells, Ruth and Lou Manseau, the Dick Longs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bayly, were among others.

The just-retired Lester Callahans had their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Whisenant of Long Beach with them. Among others were the Joe Dyers, Mr. Harrison Barnes, the John Clocks, Jock Williamson, Janice Chiquoine.

VISITING GOLFERS, here for the Sixth Annual Ladies Invitational Tournament at Thunderbird have a rare treat in store Wednesday evening, when Thunderbird members will stage an old-time, black-face minstrel show. Composer Hoagy Carmichael, who has written special lyrics for the show, will be Interlocutor, and the Minstrel Men are (l to r) Judy Howard, Jane Wade, Robin Barnes and Irene Hines. Standing (l to r) Maggie Hicks, Delphine Weimar and Daphne Tuma.

S.M. Club Formal Opening

The fabulous Shadow Mountain Club will celebrate its ninth year with a Formal Opening on Saturday, November 17.

Black, white and gold will be the prominent colors in the evening's decor. Simplicity, as usual, will keynote the beauty of this party. White tapers flecked with gold dust will adorn black driftwood candelabra in various appropriate sections of the dining room. The holders, bedecked in white, will have gold-flecked candles in holders with gold ribbon swirls at the base. Also, decorating the tables will be handpainted gold tumblers, which are souvenir gifts from the Club to its members.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Jo Lantz Trio, and special entertainment will also add to the evening's program.

Serving on the committee planning the opening are Mmes. Gene Bertling, Jerry Malone, Eugene Roberts and Ross Patten.

Early reservations include: Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes, Mr. and

Mrs. Niles Howell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Janss and Mr. and Mrs. Russ Nichols of Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fristed, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Schutz, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Just right, warm sunshiny days . . . make this the time of year when Palm Springers can read complacently about cold weather back east . . . and rainy days in the Northwest . . . Even talked with one couple this week . . . who hurried back from Hawaii . . . because it was too humid . . . and this revives that well-worn theme . . . that there's just no place like Palm Springs . . . Fun-wise it's pretty good too . . . as a busy weekend testifies . . . We found ourselves hurrying from one place to another . . . in mid-season style . . . so let's just get on with the news of what went on in Palm Springs from Friday to Monday . . .

Annabelle and David Margolis have their daughter-in-law Mrs. Al Margolis and their granddaughter Ellen Sue (she's two) . . . here from Washington D.C. for a fortnight's visit . . .

In the Village during Western Week-end were Colette and Jack Jackson of Tucson . . . who own the Saddle and Surrey Guest Ranch in our neighbour state . . . They were guests of Lynn Morgan at Desert Isle . . .

Mark Kramer (Continental Air Lines vee) is here from Denver . . . for a few weeks at Thunderbird . . . Also at Thunderbird for a few days is manufacturer Frank Slagel of Los Angeles . . . whose wife has gone to Australia for the Olympics . . .

Walter Gross (pianist-composer of "Tenderly") who is opening Thanksgiving at The Dunes . . . had the copper-topped piano ringed with celebrities . . . when he played there Friday evening . . . The long wall table next to the piano had a dinner group of 15 . . . including Alice Faye and Phil Harris, the Dean Martins, Jimmy Van Heusen . . . the Sammys Kahns, Mrs. Johnny Burke, Mack Gray and Dick Steinberg, Si DeVore . . .

At another table, close to the piano, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brazy . . . (he's president of Pan-American Broadcasting of Los Angeles . . . and they have a home here on Pasatiempo . . . which they moved into in September . . . Their son Bob is in Palm Springs High and their daughter Robin attends Katherine Finchy . . . His parents Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Brazy of Beverly Hills have been at the Bermuda Palms for about a month . . .

At the same table with the Brazys . . . were Mr. and Mrs. M. Nadler (he's the L.A. manufacturer of dresses) who spent the week-end here at the Biltmore . . . The Nadlers and Brazys had been next door neighbours in Van Nuys . . . The other two members of this party were George Beebe Jr. and Aileen Cox . . .

A night or so earlier Bonita and Jack Wratther and their two children . . . the Don Castles and Jeann Ballard . . . were a dinner group at The Dunes . . .

Judge and Mrs. James D. Garibaldi had a dinner at their Boot Hill Road home at Thunderbird Friday night . . . for their golf tournament weekend houseguests . . . the Glen Doughitys, Al Coxes, Kent Redwines . . . Other guests were the Bill von Ernsts, Wade Ambroses, Ruby Meyers and Frank Slagel . . . Conversation centered around golf to the extent that the group got up their own tournament play for Saturday . . . complete with a minor calculus . . . with Pat Cox and Pat Ambrose, Judge Garibaldi and Cox emerging the winners . . .

Saw Helen and Walter Braunschweiger (just back from attending the Arizona Bankers convention) at the Thomas party Saturday night . . . Helen was quite unhappy because some of her jewels were stolen from their hotel room in Phoenix . . . including an emerald cut diamond ring . . . a diamond bracelet . . . and a cherished antique necklace . . .

Garden hint from Emily DeWare . . . reveals the secret of those fabulous roses . . . which she grows each year . . . She says she rings the bushes with bacon drippings . . . three times a year . . . the middle of October, January

Vacation Here

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Roth (he's president of Arrow Brands Inc.) of Long Beach, with their children Judy, Cathy, Nelson, Esther and Sandy, were Doll House dining the other evening. The family has been vacationing here at the Ranch Club.

Stars were falling in the Chi Chi Starlite Room Friday evening . . . The beautiful big new Starlite Room was well-filled with diners . . . for the Lillian Roth opening . . . and everyone gasped when the opening act dancers Tanya and Biagi fell down . . . It upset a waiter so that he slipped on the stairs and upside-downed a tray full of dinners . . . Actually, the dancers' slip turned out to be a gag that ended with their break-away clothes doing just that . . . Lillian Roth sang her farewell song . . . wandering through the audience . . . Blinded by the spotlight that was mirrored on her . . . she slipped on the stairs . . . but recovered like the trouper she is . . . and only half-fell . . . The star was warmly applauded by her opening night audience . . . and gave a performance that was good showmanship . . . She sang the songs that are identified with her . . . and claimed partners from the audience . . . to dance with her on the stage . . . Paul Gray, who is well-known here from previous appearances, is also on the program . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bayly of Palos Verdes Estates are staying at the 400 . . . while their new house is being constructed across from Ingleside . . . at Ramon and Cahulla . . . Mrs. Bayly is a native Parisienne . . .

Lots of Hollywood celebs around the Racquet Club this weekend . . . The Tony Martins and Kirk Douglasses were Saturday night dinner dancing there . . . Ditto the Danny Kayes . . . Hoagy Carmichael was there with Barbara Willis . . . and the Brewster Morgans (he's the producer) who have a house here . . . They are the parents of a son, recently born, who has been named Winthrop . . . Jack Lemon (he was in "Mr. Roberts") was with the honeymooning David Hafits, Julie Copeland and Stan Kamin . . .

I've always had great respect and admiration for Jacqueline Cochran . . . whom I consider one of America's great women . . . and her comment on her recent defeat in the Congressional race only strengthens my convictions . . . Jackie said . . . "I didn't win my first Bendix race either" . . .

Heels Hold Interest in New Shoes

American women are developing a real weakness for attractive heels—especially the sturdy type that can stand a lot of fancy footwork. Every woman likes to put her best foot forward, and a new material used by shoe manufacturers is really setting the old-fashioned shoe back on its heels.

Tall, slender heels are glamorous, but when they're made of wood they split rather easily, sometimes during the replacement of lifts. Shoe men have found that the best way to keep slender-heeled fanciers walking on air is to let them walk on oil. The very latest heels are being made of a petroleum-derived plastic called methyl methacrylate.

According to manufacturers, the plastic heels are much more resistant to cracking a splitting than the wooden type, even through repeated lift replacements. They have a practically unlimited color potential, which designers are already putting to use in many successful combinations. It is also said that the plastic heels will be more economical than the wooden type.

While plastic heels show their practical side in daytime shoes, they also have a fabulously glamorous side which shows up in evening slippers. The crystal-clear "glass" heel is already familiar, for instance. But then there are the endless variations—clear heels with designs cut into them, clear and colored heels with set-in rhinestones or colored stones, heels with painted designs, and many others—perfect complements for the new elegance in fashion.

Oil men are fast steppers at turning out products that keep the American woman well-groomed, well-stockinged—and well-heeled!

Geraghtys Are New Villagers

New Villagers from Los Angeles are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Geraghty of 1557 South Riverside Drive. Geraghty is a writer-director now with McCadden TV Productions, and last year directed some of the Lassie pictures which won the Peabody and Emmy Awards. He also wrote the original story which Elvis Presley has just completed "Love Me Tender," and also the screen play for Mohawk.

At present Mr. Geraghty plans a new series of TV pictures, which he will direct, called "Crisis."

Reunion Here for Brother and Sister

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Omand of Shangri La Palms, had Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mills and Bill and Ida Mae Hailey in for cake and ice cream, to meet Mrs. Omand's only brother George A. Brilling of Cleveland, Ohio. The Ohio visitor was making his first trip to the west coast, where he is thinking of locating. The brother and sister had not seen each other in many years, so the visit was a happy reunion.

Thelma Goodspeed, County correspondent for The Desert Sun is vacationing in Taxco, Mexico, and writes she is having a wonderful time.

It's usable horsepower that counts!

Rated horsepower figures don't tell the whole story of truck performance! Many passenger-car-type engines have to strain at the job of developing power to pull a normal load. They have to "give it all they've got" to move their loads and keep them rolling, cost big money in wear, repair and shortened life.

INTERNATIONAL Truck engines—built for trucks—turn at relatively low rpm—deliver high usable power at normal road speeds. They are part of the all-truck engineering that asks no passenger car component to do a truck job—part of the thinking that builds trucks stronger, to last longer . . . save you the BIG money in operating and maintenance costs.

Come in and let us give you all the facts!

All-Truck Power Plus Today's Most Modern Truck Features

- Functional, practical, money-saving styling
- Famous driver-designed Confo-Vision cab
- Power steering, power brakes available for most models
- Automatic transmission optional on many models

Interesting Guests Here for Weekend

LaPaz, the smart resort club, has played host to some very interesting guests this past week. Flying here from New York City was Miss Jan Kirk, who is with Borden Company and holds one of the most unusual positions for a woman. Now a buyer of agriculture for the firm, she has had other unusual assignments like buying sharks during the war!

Also at LaPaz were Larry Finlay, radio and TV personality who rode in the Western Week parade on Saturday, and his pretty blonde wife, Venisia, both of Hollywood. Others just relaxing around the pool, playing tennis or pitch-and-putt golf on the beautiful grounds of LaPaz were: Dr. and Mrs. Thurston Ross Jr., J. D. Manley III, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matzlik (owner of radio stations in L.A. as well as the local KPAL), all Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reid with the Robert D. Reids, of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Keller, La Jolla; Mrs. Bettie Glass, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Draper, Los Angeles, and many more.

Find Many Uses For Old Nylons

Don't throw away those old nylons. Here are a few household uses for them.

You can use old stockings to cover your shoes before packing. Or pull them over your umbrella to keep out the dust when it is hanging in the closet.

Fold old nylons around your dust mop — they wash easily and keep the mop clean. Or you can put moth balls into the toe of an old stocking and tie it on rods in garment bags when you store clothes. If you store clothes in boxes you might use old nylons to tie around the boxes as they stretch easily and pull into a tight knot.

"Las Posadas" to Open at Padua Hills November 14

Simple settings with intricate lighting effects serve as an intriguing background to develop the drama, songs and dances that have enchanted all age groups since its first presentation here in 1932.

Herman Garner chairman of the non-profit Padua Institute's Board of Trustees, said advance reservations have exceeded those of any previous season, predicting that this year's run would be the most heavily attended in Padua Hills Theatre history.

The production will be staged nightly Wednesday through Saturday beginning at 8:30 p.m. with matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30.

The cast of "Las Posadas" will also include Alicia and Daniel Sevilla, Gilberto Flores, Francisco Velazquez, Rogelio Alfaro, Maria Abundiz, Juan Soto, Gregorio Velazquez, Blas Romero, Salvador Espinosa, Vida Amador and Conchita Gallardo.

Reservations may be made by calling the Padua Hills Theatre in Claremont at LYcoming 5-1283. The dining room will be open every day except Monday with entertainment by the famous singing and dancing Mexican Players.

Floor Show Sparks First of Ranch Club's Brunches

Floor show entertainment of a wide variety sparked the first Sunday Brunch at the Palm Springs Ranch Club with Billy Snyder, formerly with the Band Box in Los Angeles, acting as master of ceremonies.

Hal White and his orchestra played during the brunch, and Clessa Williams sang numerous favorites, including "Birth of the Blues", and then joined the orchestra in singing her own arrangement of "Autumn Leaves".

Trav Rogers yielded to requests and sang the song that is his specialty "Wagon Wheels". Bill Hutton, formerly with the Spade Cooley orchestra, sang in the Elvis Presley manner, and deep-voiced Stan Lutz lifted his voice in song. Mickey Finn lead some group singing; Ukie Sherrin from the Rossmore, did a humorous routine; while Gordon Ayers, who usually dances, surprised everyone with his impressions. Song stylist Rush Adams was introduced and promised to make an appearance next Sunday.

One of the tables at the brunch was hostessed by Mrs. Nora Simpson. In this group were the Amos O'Dells of Palm Desert, the Frank Sorensens, Henry LaFogues and Mrs. Lynn La Beau. The Earle Arnolds had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Claud McQuiston, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cross, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Trezona.

Jess Barker (he was at the Playhouse last season and may be back this year; was with Joy Blain, Fred Otash (Hollywood detective agency), attorneys Art Crawley and Jay Taylor, and heavyweight judo champion Gene LaBelle. Otash and Mickey Finn were L. A. Policemen at the same time.

Julie Taurog brought her mother Marie Leonard and her friend Lou Salter. The Al Roses and their daughter Joy were with the Marty Cobins and daughter Barbara. Bill and Peggy Kirk and daughter Carroll from Rolling Hills, California, the Roy Randolphs, Bill Gargan, and Mary Hurrell with her little granddaughter Mary Patricia Newell, were others noted in the brunch crowd.

The Sunday brunch, with its impromptu entertainment and buffet brunch, will be a regular Sunday feature at the Ranch Club.

Young Marrieds Get Advice On Living Simply

Young marrieds should forget heavy silver and cut crystal and concentrate on living simply, a home economist says.

Francis M. Obst, who teaches house planning and decoration at the university of California, says, that baroque silver, fine china and crystal, while beautiful, often are impractical for couples living in small apartments or houses.

At the Doll House

Dining at the Doll House the other evening were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith Jr. and son Tony. Mrs. Smith, known professionally as Shawn Smith, was here for a rest after completing "The Land Unknown" at Universal.

She said such expenditures drain money away from necessary durable kitchen ware and upholstered pieces, and often don't go with the informal living pattern of most young marrieds.

Sisson Repeats in RC Tennis

Again Shares Doubles Title In Senior Play

John Sisson of Los Angeles, teaming with Ed Woodall, also of Los Angeles, repeated as Men's Doubles Champion in the third annual Senior Tennis Tournament held at the Racquet Club over the weekend.

Last year, Sisson won the title with Alan Herrington, who did not compete this year.

Bill Robertson of Los Angeles and Palm Springs took the Men's Singles in the Championship Flight, defeating Lew Bonds of Los Angeles, 6-4 and 6-3.

In the Class A Men's Singles, George Goman of Los Angeles defeated Lowell Gilmore, also of Los Angeles, 6-3, 2-6, 7-5. Goman earlier had defeated Dr. Jean La Peyre 6-0, 10-3, while Goman moved into the finals with a 6-1 victory over Jim Ellertson.

Sisson and Woodall won their championship match in the Men's Doubles by defeating A. L. Van Zerbe of Balboa, and Singles champion Robertson, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. They had moved into the finals with an 8-6, 2-6, 6-4 win over Bond and Joe Ciano, and a 6-3, 1-6, 6-0 triumph over Joe Call and Al Jablow.

Robertson, in moving to the Singles title, had defeated Ed Woodall 6-4, 6-3; Robert Abbot 6-0, 6-1, and Jablow 6-1, 6-1.

A good crowd witnessed the three days of fast tennis action. In the first tournament of the fall season of the Racquet Club.

French Horse After Hundred Grandeur

LAUREL, Md., (AP) — Master Boing, the sleek black, French-bred winner of the $100,000 Washington, D. C., International, was slated today to make his next American start at Santa Anita, Calif., in the $100,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap on March 9. The three-year-old speedster, who earned owner Andre Lombard of Paris $70,000 by his five-length victory over a rain-soaked turf Monday, is headed for a richly-deserved rest for the time being.

GULF STARS TO WED

SACRAMENTO, Calif., (AP) — Barbara Romack, national women's golf champion in 1954, and Buddy Porter, an assistant golf pro in this city, plan to be married next May 13. The couple's engagement was announced Monday.

Racquet Club Invitational to Attract Stars

Bill Robertson Is Winner In Singles Championship Flight

First annual Racquet Club Invitational Tennis Tournament will feature players of three countries including the top ranked Southern California netters, according to the invitations sent out this week.

The tournament will be held Friday through Sunday, Nov. 23 to 25.

Included in events scheduled for the sanctioned competition are Men's Singles, Informal Men's and Mixed Doubles. In the latter two events, club members will join the top ranking players in competition. Among the outstanding players invited are several attending the University of Southern California; John Lesch of Los Angeles; Alex Olmedo of Peru; Pancho Contreras of Mexico City; Yves Le Maistre of Mexico; Joaquin Reyes of Mexico.

Others are Noel Brown of Santa Monica, Fred Hagist of Oak View, Hugh Steward of Pasadena, and John Cranston of San Marino. Olmedo recently defeated Lew Hoad in the Pacific Southwest tournament.

Berrios Is Offered Return Hamia Bout

NEW YORK, (AP) — Featherweight contender Miguel Berrios of Puerto Rico, victor in a bloody return bout with Filipino Flash Elorde, was offered a higher ranking opponent today.

The stocky terrier, who carved two gashes 18 stitches in Elorde's left brow enroute to a unanimous 10-round decision at Madison Square Garden Friday night, was offered a return 12-round fight with second-ranking Cherif Hamia of France in early January.

Hal Smith Signs

ST. LOUIS, (AP) — Catcher Hal Smith signed his 1957 contract with the St. Louis Cardinals after receiving a pay increase. The 25-year-old Smith batted .282 as a rookie with the Cards the past season.

SPORTS in the SUN

The Desert Sun Tuesday, Nov. 13, 1956 11

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

EN ROUTE TO THE OLYMPICS, (AP) — Washington Irving, who you may remember as a bowling journalist of some note, missed the boat by not being a sports writer in 1956.

Old "Wash" chronicled the Catskill kegling antics and scored quite a beat with his hit about a gaffer named Rip Van Winkle. Well, he'd be up to his goose quill in bearded material these days.

Because 1956 has really been an "old man's year" in sports. Nor, it might be added, are the doings over. Because come Nov. 30, "Ovi" could really have written himself a piece on the fistful endeavors of a guy named Archie Moore.

ON THAT DATE, many learned observers predict, ancient Archie will flatten a young upstart named Floyd Patterson and ascend to the throne as heavyweight champion of the world. This all happens with Archie of the moors, not the mountains approaching his admitted 41st birthday. And, if the truth be known, Archie's wide-eyed Ma insists that Archie does celebrated that birthday two years ago.

But Archie has plenty of scintillating company which refuses to fade before the years. Guys like 46-year-old Johnny Longden, who still rides better than Wild Bill Hickok; baseball Methuselahs Sal Maglie and Country Slaughter, who will be 40 and 41 respectively before another baseball season rolls around, and a rounters robot named Satchel Paige, who reportedly inspired Abner Doubleday to invent baseball.

LONGDEN THIS year dusted past the world record set by Sir Gordon Richards of England by riding his 4,871st winner. Now he has left that far behind and hardly took time out from the saddle to thank all hands for entering him in the jockey Hall of Fame. How long can he go on?

"Why, a couple, three more years anyhow," he allows. Maglie was supposed to be "washed up" when this season started. So he fired Brooklyn to the National League pennant with 13 big wins, including a no-hit, no-run game; won his first World Series triumph, and then probably would have copped another with a five-hitter except for a perfect game by a sprout named Don Larsen who is underage for this era anyhow.

SLAUGHTER WON two games for the Yankees in the Series before the underpinning weakened and he bogged down. But country had no time to weep. As the Series ended, his wife presented him with an infant.

That Paige is out of this world. Pitching for Miami in the International League, at an admitted 46 and an estimated 50, old Satch had an 11-4 record, two shutouts—and a 1.85 earned run average.

Yet these still are only kids. Feller named Jim Fitzsimmons trained a horse named Nashua which became the all-time money winner of the turf and then he came up with a colt named Bold Ruler which might win the Kentucky Derby next spring. "Young Jim" is only 32.

Who's this upstart Rip Van Winkle?

Tennessee Now 2nd in Ratings

NEW YORK, (AP) — Tennessee's Sugar Bowl-bound Volunteers took over second place in the United Press college football ratings today and assumed the quest of overtaking mighty Oklahoma for the national championship.

Oklahoma was the No. 1 choice of 26 coaches on the 35-man board of experts which ranks the teams weekly for the United Press, but Tennessee moved into a challenging position following its 6-0 victory over Georgia Tech. Seven coaches made the Vols their first choice.

Texas A&M, the once-tied South-west Conference leader, moved up to the No. 3 ranking this week, and Oregon State, the likely Pacific Coast Conference entry in the Rose Bowl, broke into the top 10 in the eighth spot.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners, with a modern major college record of 37 straight victories, now have topped the United Press ratings for seven of the eight weeks of this season.

New Swim Mark
HILVERSUM, The Netherlands, (AP) — Aty Voorbij, pretty, young Dutch swimming star, broke her world record for the women's 100-meter butterfly Monday with a clocking of 1:10.5. She set her old mark of 1:11.9 last Feb. 5.

Stassen Says Election Revealed Serious Weakness in GOP Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Presidential disarmament adviser Harold E. Stassen, the man who tried to dump Vice President Richard M. Nixon from the GOP ticket, said today that the election results revealed a "serious weakness" in the Republican Party.

He said this was evident in the GOP loss of both Houses of Congress and a number of governorships even though President Eisenhower won a landslide popular vote.

STASSEN REFUSED to say whether he blamed the Republican loss of Congress on Nixon. But in an interview with the United Press he said:

"The election results clearly show, on the one hand, the tremendous popular support for President Eisenhower and his policies, and on the other hand, serious weakness in our Republican Party in losing both Houses of Congress and a number of governorships even though it had the advantage of the President's great vote."

"OUR REPUBLICAN Party must rebuild its strength, particularly in the ranks of organized labor, the small businessman and the family farmer. This is essential if the Republican Party is to become a majority party in the United States in the years ahead."

Knowland Doubts Either Party Will Rule Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland suggested today that neither the GOP nor the Democratic Party can expect to have its own way in the new Congress.

As Republican spokesman in the Senate, Knowland is slated to stay in the minority floor leader's job because the Democrats maintained in Tuesday's election the same numerical 49 to 47 majority they held in the last Congress. Unless some hitch develops, the Democrats will organize the Senate as well as the House when the 85th Congress meets Jan. 3.

"THE DEMOCRATIC margin is so narrow that there is going to have to be coordination between the leadership to get anything done," Knowland said.

During the past two years, the Democrats have generally gone along with Mr. Eisenhower on foreign policy. The clashes have been over tax legislation, farm policy and other domestic issues.

The President's personal prestige, enhanced by his tremendous popular vote this week, may encourage bipartisan support for his new legislative program, at least in the early months of the new Congress.

WITH LESS than two per cent of the precincts missing, the latest United Press count for the presidential election gave Mr. Eisenhower 35,144,285 votes compared with 25,456,545 for Stevenson. With 266 electoral votes needed to win, the President won 457 against 74 for Stevenson.

Mr. Eisenhower's total popular vote was an all-time record and his victory margin was second only to that of 1936, when the late President Roosevelt defeated Alfred M. Landon by more than 10 million votes.

Texas produced 4.5 trillion cubic feet of marketed natural gas in 1955 or 52 per cent of the nation's total.

LEGAL NOTICE

NO. 147
NOTICE INVITING BIDS
Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the Palm Springs Unified School District of Riverside County, California, will receive bids for supplying the following equipment and materials, in accordance with the following conditions as per list of specifications on file in the district administrative office, 518 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, California, at 2 p. m., on the date scheduled for the opening of such bids.

Each bid aggregating $1,000 or over must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check, or bid bond for not less than 5 per cent of the total amount of the bid. If only certain items of a bid are accepted, the bidder may thereupon substitute a certified or cashier's check for 5% of the aggregate amount of the bid.

The above mentioned check shall be given as a Bid Security and Performance Guarantee that the bidder will comply with the terms of his signed bid, and if the successful bidder fails to do so, and with the terms of the signed bid, after acceptance thereof by the Board, his check will be forfeited.

Other things being equal, preference will be given to the products of the State of California.

The Board reserves the right to be the sole judge of equality, where substitutes are proposed, and to reject any and all bids, or any part of a bid, and to waive any informality in the bids received.

THERESA PRESS

THE BUY OF THE MONTH

THIS HOME is not new or modern, as modern is interpreted today... modern conveniences, yes! One of Palm Springs' finest families once called it home. The stately four-bedroom, 3 bath home is enclosed by a wall to which pyramids cling like owners, and fruit trees inside this wall, laden with fruit, add to the charm. The pool, which overlooks the mountains, claims its own dressing room, bath, and patio... it is located in the envied Tennis Club area where homes are hard to find... Completely furnished... an incredible buy at $45,000.

OUT-OF-TOWN OWNERS, with other interests now, offer for sale their Tahquitz River Estates home... 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, lovely living room with fireplace, 2-car garage. The completely walled and shrubbed yard complements the lovely pool off the patio... and it's completely furnished too, for only $32,500.

Come in and inquire about our Acreage... SH-hhhhhhhhh!!!

Young, 56, died at 5:40 p. m., Saturday, at Desert Hospital, approximately two hours after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage at his home in Desert Hot Springs. Announcement of the home purchase here appeared in The Desert Sun only last week.

He was born in Chicago and at the age of 10 won a scholarship for the Conservatory of Music in Warsaw. Soon after his graduation he gave violin concerts throughout the United States.

In 1928 he wrote his first hit song, "Sweet Sue," in the same period he became musical director for Ben Bernie and Ishom Jones, and then joined Bing Crosby in radio broadcasts.

Among other outstanding compositions he had to his credit were "Love Letters," "Golden Earrings," "My Foolish Heart," "Stella by Starlight," "Our Very Own," and "You're Wonderful."

Young scored more than 300 movies, including "Around the World in 80 Days," "For Whom the Bell Tolls," "Golden Earrings," "The Brave One," and his latest, "The Buster Keaton Story." He was scheduled to do the Joe E. Lewis story, "Joker's Wild," starring Frank Sinatra, and Sam Fuller's "Run of the Arrow."

He had been a visitor here for 15 years, but only recently purchased a home in Cholla Gardens in Desert Hot Springs.

Only immediate survivor is his widow, Rita.

Four Suspects in Robbery-Beating In Custody 48 Hours After Attack

All four suspects in the robbery-beating of 31-year-old Clyde Felty of Joshua Tree, were in police custody today, captured less than 48 hours after the man was mercilessly beaten near Araby Point Saturday night.

Police said that the man had accepted a ride from the four men to go to Twentynine Palms to look for a job, but instead was taken out near Araby Point where he was robbed and beaten.

The suspects were identified by police as William Piper, 20, David Bourgoine, 21, and Tommy LeRoy Thompson, 19, all U. S. Marines from Twentynine Palms, and Francis Edward Carpenter, 21, of San Bernardino, an ex-Marine.

Felty gave police a description of the suspect's car, and just after 1 a. m., Sunday, Patrolman Ray Youngburg, spotted the car while on foot patrol, headed south on Indian avenue at Andreas road. Using a taxi call box, the officer notified the station of seeing the car, and a police car was dispatched to give assistance.

Youngburg saw the car make a right turn on Ramon Road, and figuring it would double back, started walking down Andreas. Midway down the street the car made a turn onto Andreas and literally into the arms of the law. Sgt. John Herrera early Monday morning received a report from San Bernardino County Sheriff's office that the fourth suspect, a San Bernardino laborer and truck driver, was in custody. He left Palm Springs immediately to return the 21-year-old suspect here.

In relating the events of Saturday night, police said that the four young men had taken Felty to the Araby Point bridge, where they began beating him. After the four dollars was taken from him, he started to run, and the four men caught up with him and continued the beating. They finally let the man walk away, and he went to the Los Compadres club-house, where he notified police. He was treated at Desert Hospital for bruises and released.

Del Faro Rites Held Here Today

Funeral services for Joseph Basil Del Faro, 70, 715 "B" Street, Cathedral City, were conducted at 11 a. m., today, at Wiefels and Son Chapel, with the Rev. Michael O'Donohue, pastor of St. Theresa's Catholic Church, officiating. Interment followed in the new Palm Springs Cemetery.

Del Faro was a native of Venice, Italy, and had resided in California for 34 years, and in Cathedral City for 12 years. He was owner of the Desert Villa Apartments there.

He died at Desert Hospital at 10:10 p. m., Saturday after having been there for six days.

Survivors include his widow, Jane; three sons, Bruce of Gardena, Lawrence and Gordon of North Hollywood; one daughter, Mrs. Anita Lecture of Seattle, and six grandchildren.

Approximately 30 percent of the oil wells drilled in the nation are drilled in Texas.

By IZETTA HUNT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nemeth, sister and brother-in-law of Mr. John Papp, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaspar, from Los Angeles, were week-ending with the Papps' this past week, and visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steinmetz, the parents of Mrs. Irene Papp. The Steinmetz recently moved here from the same neighborhood of Los Angeles, and now reside next door to their daughter, Mrs. Papp.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wolfe and family from Woodland Hills were Tuesday nighters with his mother, Mrs. Audrey Wolfe.

Dinner guests of the Henry Lennies, in honor of the first visit of Donald McPherson III, were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson, Jr., with Donald, the third. This was the first visit home of Mary Jean and Donnie, with the baby, and quite a few friends followed Mary Jean home from Sunday School, and later dropped in to see the new grandson of the Lennies.

Mrs. W. H. Trent and two daughters, from Northridge, Calif., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Enns.

Driving a new Alfa Romeo Giulietta Spider, Bill Reed and Lyla Jeanne Elliott, were weekend visitors of Mrs. Margaret Hodgkinson, during the races in Palm Springs. Also there with Mrs. Hodgkinson, for the races, were Maggie and Dave Dean, and daughter, Suzanne, from Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell War and family, from Los Angeles spent Tuesday with her brother and family, the Chester Williams.

Last Sunday, Ben Wollman brought Mrs. Wollman home for the first time in many months, since she suffered a heart attack last spring just after leaving here for the summer.

Plans are in the making for a Thanksgiving dinner to be given by the Thousand Palms Community Chapel for Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Police Reservists Plan Party Nov. 20

Battle Cry of the O'Neills
High Kings of Ancient Ireland

A New Romantic Novel by CARLTON GREER GEORGE

THIS IS A HIGHLY romantic, fast-moving and intensely interesting novel of the Pagan Irish people, based on ancient historical legends. The period is about 1400 years before Christ, at which time the forebears of the Scottish and Irish people came up from the Spanish peninsula and invaded Ireland.

"LAMH DEARG ABOO" is the battle cry of the O'Neills, High Kings of ancient Ireland, and the "heroine" of this novel is Deedre, whose name is taken from Deirdre, "the Helen of Troy of ancient Ireland," and a more romantic and highly controversial character seldom before has been encountered.

The story is vividly told and throbs with life, and is filled with action, both romantic and bloody, from the beginning to the end. Prophecies of dire happenings to come. Fights to the death over Deedre. The abduction of Deedre. The pursuit. The death of Milesius and the verdict of the Elders of the Clans as to the test which would determine their next king. The highly dramatic and bloody culmination of such verdict, which resulted in the fabled emblem of The O'Neills and their battle cry of "LAMH DEARG ABOO" (The Bloody Hand To Victory).

Never before has a novel been written of the ancient Irish people of this period and of their claim to descent from even more ancient Egyptian Pharaohs; which claims were consistently held by their kinsmen, the ancient Scottish kings, and officially recorded as late as the time of King Robert The Bruce.

Once you start reading this novel, you will not want to put it down until you have finished with it, and even then you will probably be talking about it for days to come. This is a story which will be told and retold by all of Irish and Scottish descent, as it harkens back to the greatness of their race before Ireland was over-run by constant invasions of barbaric Northerners who then had no civilization of their own and who lived by the sword and knew only how to kill and to destroy the civilization of others more cultured than they.

Parking Lights Not for Driving, CHP Reports

Parking lights are not to be used as driving lights at any time on any public highway, was the warning issued today by the California Highway Patrol.

"The law expressly prohibits the use of parking lights as driving lights," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "The only time the use of parking lights is legal is when they are used as signal lamps in accordance with the vehicle code or as regular parking lights."

The use of parking lights when driving at dusk, in fog or in rain tends to create a deception in the judgement of distance by the other driver," Caldwell continued. "The use of headlights gives a truer picture and aids the other driver in determining distance thus making for more safety for all."

"Obey the law and develop the habit of turning on the headlights, not the parking lights, when lights are needed or required," he concluded.
